

HOW WELL DO YOU KNOW YOUR RULES

True or False

	Question	T/F
1	There is no penalty if a ball lying in GUR is accidentally moved during search.
2	In a match Sandra and Ismay hit their balls into the same general area of the lateral water hazard on the 11th. Both balls are lost in the hazard and therefore it is not known which ball is farther from the hole. However, Ismay's ball last crossed the hazard margin farther from the hole than Sandra's ball. Ismay must play 1 st .
3	Water hazard stakes may not be moved even if they are physically movable.
4	Ann having declared her ball unplayable in a bunker must drop her ball in the bunker.
5	Sand and soil are loose impediments anywhere on the course.
6	Trish may ask her fellow competitor Trudy the distance from her ball to the green during a stipulated round
7	A player may only repair a pitch mark if her ball lies on the putting green
8	A player may stand out of bounds to play a ball lying in bounds.
9	In a match between Ann and Maeve, Maeve's caddie concedes Ann's next stroke whereupon Ann lifts her ball. The concession stands.
10	A player removes a stake defining out of bounds because it is on her line of play. She realises her mistake and immediately replaces it before playing her stroke. The player is penalised 2 strokes.
11	If the wind moves a marked ball on the putting green it must be replaced
12	A player can mark her ball on the putting green using a pitch mark repairer
13	A can of coke lying in a bunker beside a ball may be removed by the player
14	The diameter of the hole is 4 inches
15	A player is allowed 7 minutes to search for a lost ball
16	A player may use powder to dry her hands during a round of golf.
17	A player may hold an umbrella over her own head when playing a stroke
18	If a player breaks a branch of a tree during her practice swing she is penalised 1 stroke
19	A player can hold the flagstick in one hand and putt with the other hand.

20	Maureen holes out in 4. Ger has a 30ft putt for a half. Maureen tells Ger the putt is just inside the left edge. The hole is halved.
21	Linda's ball is unplayable in a bush. She declares it unplayable and decides to drop a different ball within two club-lengths of where it lay not nearer the hole. She incurs a penalty for substituting a ball for the ball in play.
22	In stroke play, a competitor's ball in a bunker moves due to her removal of a loose impediment in the bunker. The competitor replaces her ball. She is penalised 3 strokes.
23	In match play, a player's ball lies on a bridge over a water hazard and she grounds her club. There is no penalty.
24	Ruth takes her stance and places her club on the ground in front of the ball. Before she grounds her club behind the ball, the ball moves. She has not "addressed the ball" and so is not subject to a penalty.
25	In a match between Mary and Sheila, Mary holes a putt and, thinking she has won the match, picks up Sheila's ball. Sheila advises her that she had a putt to win the hole. Mary conceded Sheila's next stroke when she picked up Sheila's ball.
26	A tee must not be longer than 4"
27	Noreen's ball is in a bunker. Her partner in a 4ball plays a stroke from near the bunker and her divot lands near Noreen's ball. The divot may be removed.
28	A player is allowed to use a golf ball that was purposely warmed with a golf ball warmer, hand warmer during a stipulated round.
29	During play of the 17 th hole, Deirdre asked Jenny what club she (Jenny) had used on the 8 th hole, which is a par – 3 of a similar length. Deirdre was in breach of Rule 8
30	A player's ball is on the green. Her partner attends the flag and suggests that the player aim at her left foot. The player has not breached a rule.

Time: (15 Mins) True or False

	Question	T/F
1	There is no penalty if a ball lying in GUR is accidentally moved during search.	T
2	In a match Sandra and Ismay hit their balls into the same general area of the lateral water hazard on the 11th. Both balls are lost in the hazard and therefore it is not known which ball is farther from the hole. However, Ismay's ball last crossed the hazard margin farther from the hole than Sandra's ball. Ismay must play 1 st .	F
3	Water hazard stakes may not be moved even if they are physically movable.	F
4	Ann having declared her ball unplayable in a bunker must drop her ball in the bunker.	F
5	Sand and soil are loose impediments anywhere on the course.	F
6	Trish may ask her fellow competitor Trudy the distance from her ball to the green during a stipulated round	T
7	A player may only repair a pitch mark if her ball lies on the putting green	F
8	A player may stand out of bounds to play a ball lying in bounds.	T
9	In a match between Ann and Maeve, Maeve's caddie concedes Ann's next stroke whereupon Ann lifts her ball. The concession stands.	F
10	A player removes a stake defining out of bounds because it is on her line of play. She realises her mistake and immediately replaces it before playing her stroke. The player is penalised 2 strokes.	T
11	If the wind moves a marked ball on the putting green it must be replaced	F
12	A player can mark her ball on the putting green using a pitch mark reparer	T
13	A can of coke lying in a bunker beside a ball may be removed by the player	T
14	The diameter of the hole is 4 inches	F
15	A player is allowed 7 minutes to search for a lost ball	F
16	A player may use powder to dry her hands during a round of golf.	T
17	A player may hold an umbrella over her own head when playing a stroke	T
18	If a player breaks a branch of a tree during her practice swing she is penalised 1 stroke	F
19	A player can hold the flagstick in one hand and putt with the other hand.	T
20	Maureen holes out in 4. Ger has a 30ft putt for a half. Maureen tells Ger the putt is just inside the left edge. The hole is halved.	T

21	Linda's ball is unplayable in a bush. She declares it unplayable and decides to drop a different ball within two club-lengths of where it lay not nearer the hole. She incurs a penalty for substituting a ball for the ball in play.	F
22	In stroke play, a competitor's ball in a bunker moves due to her removal of a loose impediment in the bunker. The competitor replaces her ball. She is penalised 3 strokes.	F
23	In match play, a player's ball lies on a bridge over a water hazard and she grounds her club. There is no penalty.	T
24	Ruth takes her stance and places her club on the ground in front of the ball. Before she grounds her club behind the ball, the ball moves. She has not "addressed the ball" and so is not subject to a penalty.	F
25	In a match between Mary and Sheila, Mary holes a putt and, thinking she has won the match, picks up Sheila's ball. Sheila advises her that she had a putt to win the hole. Mary conceded Sheila's next stroke when she picked up Sheila's ball.	F
26	A tee must not be longer than 4"	T
27	Noreen's ball is in a bunker. Her partner in a 4ball plays a stroke from near the bunker and her divot lands near Noreen's ball. The divot may be removed.	T
28	A player is allowed to use a golf ball that was purposely warmed with a golf ball warmer, hand warmer during a stipulated round.	F
29	During play of the 17 th hole, Deirdre asked Jenny what club she (Jenny) had used on the 8 th hole, which is a par – 3 of a similar length. Deirdre was in breach of Rule 8	F
30	A player's ball is on the green. Her partner attends the flag and suggests that the player aim at her left foot. The player has not breached a rule.	F